

Please allow New Jersey to keep its "Do Not Call" list as it is. My husband and I resent having the peace of our home interrupted by people soliciting business, even from charitable organizations. We want our telephone reserved for contacts from friends or family, or businesses only if we initiate the contact. Thank you.